ESTATE PLANNING ASSISTANCE

Estate planning may be the single largest act of stewardship that most of us as Christians will ever perform.

Your estate plan should be such that it can be said, "at the time of death, my finances will be given to those individuals (family and friends) and organizations (church and/or other charities) who will continue to use my assets in such a way that reflects my character and faith."

Leaving a well-planned and organized estate plan with your wishes clearly stated and providing a strong example of stewardship, will leave a lasting legacy in the minds and hearts of your family.

Do you have your key documents in order and current?

- Last will and testament
- Revocable living trust
- Beneficiary designations
- Durable power of attorney
- Healthcare power of attorney and living will
- Provision for digital assets
- Letter of intent
- List of important documents

We are told that a staggering 70% of Americans do not have a current will. The ramifications of this on children, surviving spouses, on taxes and fees is immeasurable.
