Flowing Together

Artwork by Ciera Nash

You offer living water
I drink
You flow in me
Through me
From me
A mere rivulet
Yet my embankment grows
Lush with new life

True life rushes in me
Through me
From me
To another
We are connected
He in us
Us in him
In the living water
We are stronger
Empowered
Carving a path

Your spirit bursts in us
Through us
From us
Converging with others
We swell
Flowing together
Sculpting the Earth
With new life
Careening forward
For Change
For Impact
For Transformation
No longer a babble
But a roar
